

RESOLVE

Reconciliation for Development approach

LEARN

Young people and community educators develop a range of peacebuilding, leadership and life skills through participation on a RESOLVE activity or Reconciliation for Development training programme.

VOLUNTEER

A participant on the RESOLVE programme commit to volunteer or through RESOLVE mentor's support, design and launch their own social action activity to benefit their community.

CONNECT

Young people and community educators utilise their new skillsets to promote social tolerance in their community, through social action and by becoming future community peacebuilders.

CHANGE

As future community leaders, young people support sustained social tolerance in their communities ensuring long term change.